Roumania.

APPROACHING HER INDEPENDENCE.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Roumanian Senate has adopted the Constitution as revised in accordance with the recommendations of the Powers which were parties to the treaty of Berlin. As soon as certain other requirements mentioned in the treaty are complied with it is said the recognition of the independence of Roumania will immediately follow.

CZAR TO VISIT BERLIN.

LONDON, Oct. 25 .- A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the Czar will possibly visit Berlin en route to Cannes, whither he is to go in the hope of restoring his broken bealth. Much speculation is indulged in as to the purport of his proposed visit, although it is assumed in general terms that it necessarily concerns the new Austro-German alliance of which official protocols have just been signed by the Emperors Francis Joseph and William, as already fully detailed in these dispatches.

The Czar's health is said to be such as to render the undertaking of a great campaign an almost certain death warrant, yet his disposition to press the questions now impending in Europe and Asia between Russia and the other powers seems to increase as his personal ability to look after them is more to be distrusted.

LAWSON-LABOUCHERE. LONDON, Oct. 25 .- The case of Levy against Labouchere, after having been p stponed for one week, was resumed yesterday before a magistrate at Guild Hall. Mr. La-bouchere, who conducted his own defense, summoned Mr. Lawson as a witness, and de clared his intention to prove from his own lips that Lawson is a disgrace to journalism.

Labouchere affirms that the representa-tives of the New Y-rk Herald have ob-tained a slip from the office of the Tele-graph containing a false and garbled account of the fracas upon which the suit is founded and cabled it to the Herald. Much disgust is felt here at the squabble between these two gentlemen, and neither of them are liable to come out of it with any credit,

No saw him again until he was found dead killed by his own hand.

THE WHEAT CROP.

What We Can Send Away and What We Can Eat.

National Associated Press to the Star.

New YORK, Oct. 25,-The Statistician of he Produce Exchange, after a careful estimate from authoritative reports, places the wheat crop of the United States for 1879 at bout 425,000,000 bushels. The spring wheat crop will not be so large as was at first expected; that of Minnesota being no more than 28,000,000 bushels, instead of 40,000,000, as estimated early in the season. The amount consumed by 18.000,000 persons, plus the amount consumed by 48.000,000 persons, plus the amount required for seed and other purposes, placed at 250,000,000 bushels, leaving 175,000,000 bushels for Europe and 15,000,000 for other ports.

SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.

A Saloon-keeper Puts a Bullet Through His Head.

Charles Andrews, a married man, about thirty-five years of age, who leaves a wife and child, is the proprietor of two saloons, situated respectively at No. 190 Sycamore street and 270 Vine street.

The suicide occurred at the former saloon, in a room back of the same. Andrews was the proprietor of these places for only about three weeks.

About 9 o'clock this morning he went to his room, lay down on the bed with his clothes and boots on, and then penning a brief note to his wife, took a revolver—a thirty-two caliber Colt—placed the muzzle to his forehead and fired. The bullet entered the center of the forehead above the nose, and made a wound as if the man had been hit with the blunt end of a hatchet.

Georgia Ward, a frail maiden, disappointed in a heart affair, took laudanum last evening. The stomach pump was brought in and she still lives.

Jacob Barnheiser, a young man about officer Delebanty arrived and found the deceased as described above. The man still had the pistol in his right hand. In a drawer on the side-board of the saloon was found the following, addressed to his wife: "Lizzie—Trials and tribulations still follow me. I am discouraged and am tired of life-a continual worry all the while. When this reaches you I will be no more. God bless you, my wife and child, and pray for the salvation of my soul. Farewell. "CHARLIE." The above was written on a small piece of paper, in a good hand writing, and was addressed to "Lizzie Andrews, Irwin, Union County, Ohio."

Patrick Butler, the bar-keeper, says that his employer had for some time been speculating in the Chicago grain market, and that he had lost considerable money. Andrews had been despondent for some time.

There were only about $9 in money found

Dr. Dunlap was called, but could do The Coroner was notified, and will hold an inquest Monday.

The Coroner endeavored to telegraph to Mrs. Andrews, the wife of the deceased, at Irwin, but no station being nearer than six miles, he was unable to reach her to-day. Another Suicide. Fred Berlekamp, a stone cutter, 70 years old, a drunkard living at 315 Wade street, suicided at 8:30 this morning by hanging himself to a bed post.

He leaves a wife and two children. The neighbors heard the noise, and when the body was cut down it was still warm.

A DARING THEFT. $750 Worth of Watches Taken From a Jewelry Store. When Mr. L. H. Kent, the jeweler at the southwest corner of Sixth and Main streets. opened his large safe this morning he discovered that fifteen gold watches of various sizes and descriptions were missing. How they disappeared is a mystery, aithoug it is supposed that two strangers who entered the store last evening about 5½ o'clock are the perpetrators of the robbery.

The watches were in the safe at the time these men entered. One of them occupied the attention of the salesman by pricing a large number of clocks. It is supposed to other did the stealing while the salesman's attention was attracted. Mr. Kent's loss is
